DISPOSITION OF SOVIET MILITARY FORCES IN RUMANIA

According to reliable information, new Soviet military forces have moved into Rumania and have concentrated in the regions of Timisoara, Resitsa, Arad, Constanta, Craiova, Turnu-Severin, Bucharest, Galati, Braila, Roman, and Suceava. These Soviet forces are chiefly made up of tank, artillery, and engineer units. The engineer units have bridge-building materiel with them.

The above information also adds that the existence of a large number of transport vehicles has been noted in the Danube valley between Giurgiu and Turnu-Severin.

Moreover, according to the information, the Soviet air forces have their bases in the following airports: Bucharest, Buzau, Tecuci, Constanta, Arad, Timisoara, Craiova, and Statina [unidentified].

The information adds further that the Rumanian Air Force and Navy, which has been under Soviet command, has recently been staffed with 50 percent Soviet crews.
